A presentation of money was made by Rev. Father Tennant. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. L. Bunyan and Mrs. C. L. Schmaltz.

Tetz-Borgardt Exchange Vows

Miss Clara Borgardt, 528 9th St. North Edmonton, recently became the bride of Albert Tetz, 114 11 St. N.E., Calgary, Alberta.

Clara is the third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borgardt of Beiseker, Alta. and Albert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tetz of Calgary.

The couple were united in marriage by Rev. F.W. Snyder, Nov. 3rd in the Evangelical United Brethren Church, Calgary. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For the ceremony, the bride chose white taffeta with lily point sleeves, lace peplum with rosettes and a sweetheart neckline. The attendants were a sister, a cousin and a girl friend each wearing yellow, green and pink respectively.

The groom was attended by two brothers and a cousin of the bride's.

The music for the wedding service was handled by Miss Martha Busch, wearing a pink gown, and a solo was rendered by Frieda, sister of the bride, who wore a blue net gown.

The wedding reception was held in the Elks Hall, Calgary.

The brides table was decorated with white and pink streamers, centered with a three tiered wedding cake. Sixty guests enjoyed a lovely turkey supper.

Beiseker Experiences Worst Harvesting Weather

BEISEKER — With more rain and snow in the past week, it has been most discouraging for harvesting and the farmers are giving up hope of threshing what looked like a bumper crop in the fall. The soil is so saturated with water that most residents have water in their basements. The demand for sump pumps exceeds the supply.

A lug municipal bulldozer working in town sank so deep in mud it had to be pulled out by a caterpillar tractor.

The feed situation is quite bad for some farmers. Most of the green feed is in swath under the snow, and bundles are frozen to the ground. Fortunately some have a good supply of hay.

Old timers say this is the worst harvest weather they have experienced in this district.

Knights Of Columbus Honor Altar Boys

On Oct. 26 the Beiseker Altar Boys were honored by the Beiseker-Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Following their regular meeting, two of the boys, Roger Meidinger and Marvin Schmaltz, received money prizes donated by Mr. Val Schmaltz and Carl L. Schmaltz for being the best all round campers at the Altar Boys camp this past summer. The remainder of the boys received pen knives and medals from Rev. Father Tennant who made all presentations.

Following this the Knights were given a splendid talk on the coming organization of the Home and School by Mr. Frank Plante, principal of Beiseker school.

Mr. Plante stressed the fact that to be of real value to the community the Home and School organization should be attended by men and women alike and anyone interested in the education of the children and the closer understanding between parent and teacher.

MEMORIES of the Royal Visit to Calgary came flashing back to the headlines this week. At a reception in Washington, a cowboy from Texas said that it was unfortunate that the Duke and the Princess would be unable to visit the "Lone Star State." To this the Duke replied, "We have been to Calgary, and that is the next best thing." The Royal couple will not forget the views of the miniature stampede put on for them at Calgary.

EDITORIALS

Backbone Of the Army

As every veteran knows, regardless of which branch of the service he was in, the Infantry soldier wins the battles and the wars. No other group of fighting men have won the high honors that Canada's infantry have won, and in no group is the spirit of high purpose and comradeship in better evidence.

Alberta men who want to travel and serve their country, men who are young enough to appreciate adventure now have an opportunity to fulfill a life-long ambition. The Canadian Army has openings now for such men in the honoured Infantry Corps. Recruiting Officer Captain Roy A. Jardine of Headquarters Western Command has appointed local recruiting officers in various towns in Alberta so that young men in rural areas can easily consult a qualified representative of the Army in their own home districts.

The recruiting campaign starts in Alberta on November 1st. Recruits will have the opportunity of identifying themselves with either the famous Loyal Edmonton Regiment, the Princess Pat Canadian Light Infantry or one of the excellent eastern or B.C. units. Every new infantryman has his choice of unit—and choice of career in the Infantry.

Conservatives To Open Fight

Alberta Conservatives have decided to end the peace and take up the old-time dividing battle that has little meaning in a realistic world, but leaves only a sour taste in the public mouth. The Tory party never has got anywhere in Alberta and it is more than probable it never will, but just the same, heredity, historic background and party pride must have its way. Party integrity, not party co-operation, is the watchword.

Time, effort, money, peace in the public arena, all these and much more mean nothing, the party must keep alive, even if only in gasps and spasms and jerks, in the hope that some day, in some mysterious and miraculous manner, something will happen to squeeze the Tory group into the seats of the mighty in Alberta.

In the federal field it is different. There the Tories have always taken a prominent and useful role in the country's affairs, but, in Alberta where the party spasms are only the dying plunges of a fishy mite, it means only fighting, disturbance of the provincial peace and a waste of effort, money and time. When will a Tory learn anything?

News Item: "More than one hundred delegates from all over Alberta are expected to attend the provincial convention of the Progressive Conservative Association, at the Macdonald, Nov. 15 to 16, according to the Northern Alberta vice-president."

Coyote Control

Farmers and ranchers who suffer loss year by year by coyotes, often differ among themselves as to the best means of control. The old system of bounties, though favoured yet by some, is definitely disapproved of by the Government officials. It seems, though, that coyote days are numbered in Alberta, what with the new cyanide guns and system of instruction schools to inform those interested on how to use them. Nine districts have conducted these schools.

These are the Municipal Districts of Ponoka, Bonnyville, Cochrane, Wetaskiwin, Bright, Camrose, Stony Plain and Leduc, and local Improvement District No. 76 (Beaton area). The Municipal Districts of Pincher Creek, Kneehill, Lac Ste. Anne and Red Deer also have applied for the establishment of the program in their districts.

The schools familiarize Pest Control Officers with cyanide "coyote-getters" and the necessary precautions taken when setting up a gun. These include the posting of warning signs in the area and notifying neighbors and local schools of the danger. The "coyote-getters," cyanide cartridges, scents, bait and other materials are supplied free of cost by the Department of Agriculture to organized districts and distributed by the District Agriculturists and Pest Control Officers. Coyote guns set out properly have been successful.

Helibuses, Helicabs, Heliports and Helicosts

By T. W. PUE

In some ways, flying is the fastest distance between two points. In other ways, it pays you to fly only if you have plenty of time.

On a trip from Halifax to Vancouver you save probably three days flying time and on such a jaunt the two hours spent in limousine travel between airport and down-town hotel is inconsequential. But flying from Edmonton to Wetaskiwin, say, would involve more time in ground travel than in flight. Edmonton has the unique advantage of having an airport literally in the down-town area. But it won't be long before public opinion will force the city to sell the present airport property (at a big price) to housing and commercial interests and the airport will be located about ten miles from the Macdonald Hotel, just like in other big cities.

T. W. PUE

FLY TO THE AIRPORT!

The helicopter, that strange looking machine with a wind mill in front, and another big one on top, may be the answer to the problem. In Detroit, for instance, you travel 40 miles to get to the airport. And it's so far from the point the bus drops you off to the point where you actually step into the plane that I think another bus service should be instituted to serve passengers once they get to the airport.

Anyway, it would simplify air travel greatly if passengers could fly that 40 miles from the roof of the Brooks-Cadillac to Willow Run—and save hours of travel. That's what the helicopter would do—fly the passengers to the airport from a small "airfield", the flat roof of a tall down-town building. With its second propeller sitting on the top, twirling around like an old fashioned fan in an ice cream parlor, it flies straight up.

NOW MERCY PLANE

The time I rode in a helicopter was back in 1937, long before it was put to the serious work of flying wounded men out of combat zones, as is done now in Korea. It cost me $5.00 for a ten minute flight over Toronto from what is now Malton Airport.

But will the strange looking flying windmill do a real job in commercial aviation? I believe it will.

I think that in a few years, besides flying passengers to and from airports, it'll be used to make the local runs now being operated by buses and trains.

Helicopters will become helibuses, by carrying passengers from the roof of the Edmonton bus depot to towns and villages in the province. It will take 1½ hours to fly to Whitecourt with stops at Onoway, Sangudo and Mayerthorpe. The helibus will serve towns now getting mail by bus and train.

Helicabs will respond to private calls in the same manner as taxis do now. Only you'll call a hellicab to travel distances of not less than ten or fifteen miles.

Every town will have a heliport. If the new Killam arena had a flat roof it would make an excellent heliport. Other towns would be wise to preserve a complete block of land to be held as a future heliport for downtown parking of helibuses and helicabs.

Then there are helicosts. It will cost more to fly by hellicab than to travel by taxicab. The biggest expense will be the initial cost of the machines. But now in Korea they're giving them plenty of practical experience and it may be that after the extravagances of war have run their course a future Henry Ford will produce helicopters cheaply by mass production.

You may even be the proud owner of your own private family helicar. I hope so anyway.

THE BIBLE TODAY:

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh; that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. . . . For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.—From Paul's letter to the Romans, Chapter 8, Verses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6.

Note and Comment

We're afraid that one problem facing Alberta farmers has been solved—but the solution is worse than the problem. Where to store the 1951 grain crop until it could be moved by rail to port shipping points, isn't now the big problem. The farmer's worry is how to get the crops in from the fields, with near zero weather and blowing snow, day after day. The situation, particularly tight here in Alberta, is serious.

LIFE OF RILEY?

Dear Sir—I'd sure like to know what "Tired Businessman" knows about socialism. He says he is tired—what a laugh. I bet your seat must have blisters from sitting around all day. He thinks farmers have it easy, but I bet the only farmer he must have seen was in the movies.

For his information, farmers on the whole work from sunrise to sunset.

I don't see what "Tired Businessman" has to beef about because if it wasn't for the farmer what would he have to eat?

AGAINST PRICE CONTROL

Dear Sir—I have seen an editorial in your September 18 issue in which you argue that the labor unions are right in asking for price control. You say that in the United States the cost-of-living index has not risen since control has been put on. On the other hand the cost-of-living index has been rising in Canada, while controls have not been put on. You think this proves that the unions are right.

This summer has been too short for the ripening of crops. It has been, also, much too short as a test of price control as a means of keeping prices down.

If this spring the Canadian Government had followed the example of the United States, and started talking about putting on price control, there would have been a check given to price increases here, just as was the case there. The people would have felt that, with a promise from the Government, that prices would be stopped from rising, it would be safe to withhold from spending.

That is, as the wartime experience showed, price control will work for a while. The trouble is that it breaks down in the end, in a free country. No government of a free country can long prevent its people from buying what they want to buy, at prices which they can and will pay, and it is a plain fact that prices never rise beyond the point at which the public can and will pay for them.

Mr. Abbot has pointed out in plain language that the famous price control system in Canada during the war was taken off in 1946, because the Government felt that it was about to break down. Price control was taken off in the United States because it had broken down, there. Hold your horses for a moment. Price control, in the United States, is now admittedly breaking down again, after being tried for only a few months. When it breaks down, the cost-of-living in that country will rise even faster than it has been rising in Canada.

As the British Labor Party has pointed out in a recent pamphlet,

"This Cost of Living Business," the cure for inflation is increased production. This cure can be helped a lot by the Government cutting down on some of its spending, for it is Government spending which is the main source of inflation in the United States and Canada.

Price controls, as the American Federation of Labor has recently pointed out, in its publication, "Labor's Monthly Survey," "do not reach the real causes of inflation and of these causes are not dealt with, price controls cannot be effective but will only lead to (1) black markets while controls are on, and (2) serious inflation after they are lifted."

THAT'S FOR SURE.

Calgary, Alta.

EUROPEAN JIGSAW

Dear Sir—The city of Trieste should be returned to Italy. In similar justice; why should not the old German city of Danzig be returned to Germany? This was one of the reasons Germany marched troops into Poland. G.R.

LADY VOLUNTEER

Dear Sir—Time was when we got mail twice a day — before breakfast and after lunch. Now we get it once a day, and even that service is rotten. Why don't they hire women carriers? I'll take the job myself if they'll have me.

Small Alberta Towns Keep Pace With Growth Of Edmonton

Edmonton is not alone in rapid expansion, the recent census shows, but small towns and villages in Alberta manage very well to keep abreast with their capital's example of progress and expansion.

The 1951 census shows that some of Alberta's smaller communities have more than doubled their population in the last five year period, and developed their businesses and utilities accordingly.

Towns such as Redwater, Leduc and Nisku have sprung into importance through the development of Alberta's rich oil fields, and have set up secondary industries in the boom that will always employ a greater number of new citizens than they could have imagined a few years ago.

Oil, however, cannot be given all the credit. Agriculture can also claim considerable importance.

With the rise in returns for top grade farm products, and increased rapid production of foodstuffs, better facilities in small towns have had to be built. More modern creameries and egg grading stations are springing up, employing construction men, local helpers, and in most cases, city trained specialists.

Scores of homesteaders are moving into our more northern districts and setting up communities for their own convenience, where they not only buy their staples and sell their products, but also meet there for pleasure and entertainment.

Here are statistics taken at random from the 1951 census to illustrate just how our small towns have grown:

Redwater, from not incorporated to 1,302.

Andrew, from 326 to 623.

Killam, from 347 to 465.

Increases can be shown in many others like Vilna, Thorhild, Beiseker, Clyde and Daysland.

U.S. Puts Trade Squeeze On Czechs To Help Free Imprisoned Newsmen

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. — (BUP) — The United States and Communist Czechoslovakia traded new economic punches today over the imprisonment of Newsmen William N. Oatis.

American officials were sure that the Czechs would be hit hardest in the exchange of blows.

On President Truman's order, the treasury department suspended tariff concessions made to Czechoslovakia on a wide range of products sold in the United States. The higher rates are effective at the close of business today.

Czechoslovakia is retaliating by putting into effect simultaneously maximum tariffs on American goods shipped to the iron curtain country.

Trade figures just released by the commerce department indicated that the Czechs will suffer the most in the exchange. The U.S. is relying on this strategy to help free Oatis from his 10-year sentence on trumped-up spy charges.

Miami Date For Charles, Walcott

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. — (BUP) — Promoter Jim Norris said he has proposed that heavyweight champ Joe Walcott fight Ezard Charles in February at Miami, Florida.

Norris said he has made the proposal to Walcott's manager, Felix Bocchicchio. But Norris says Bocchicchio wants Walcott to defend his title against Rocky Marciano in February, with the winner meeting Charles in June.

Norris emphasized that Walcott has a contract to meet former heavyweight king Charles, and that he, Norris, would not allow Charles to be by-passed in favor of young Marciano.

$3 Millions Left In Savings Fund

OTTAWA, Nov. 2 — (BUP) — Finance Minister Douglas Abbott told parliament yesterday the government is trying to locate the rightful owners to a small fortune in refundable savings cheques which Canadians have failed to claim.

During the wartime years of 1942, 1943 and 1944, Canadians were obliged to save money through a government compulsory savings plan. Most Canadians got their amounts back after the war, but 66,313 persons have left $3,176,334 with the government, Abbott revealed.

Farewell Presentation Held

About 30 employees of the CPR section in Beiseker and district held a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. W. Perks on Friday evening, Oct. 26.

Mr. Perks recently retired from the CPR after 40 years in their service. The past ten years were spent in Beiseker as section foreman.

During the evening a purse of money was presented to Mr. Perks from his fellow workers and Mrs. Perks received a box of chocolates.

The couple have moved into Calgary and will reside in the Hillhurst district.

POWERED FOR THE JOB

Four great engines! The 92-h.p. Thriftmaster, the big 105-h.p. Loadmaster, the massive 114-h.p. Torquemaster and the mighty 120-h.p. engine all deliver outstanding performance with remarkably low fuel and maintenance expense.

VALVE-IN-HEAD DESIGN

For 39 years, Chevrolet has built valve-in-head engines. No other manufacturer has built so many, just as no other truck-engine design can match the over-all economy and proved efficiency of Chevrolet's valve-in-head.

BLUE-FLAME COMBUSTION

Wrings all the usable energy from every drop of gasoline. Blue-Flame combustion is possible only with valve-in-head engine design — provides greater power and livelier performance, through more efficient utilization of fuel.

POWER-JET CARBURETOR

At low speed, on grades or at regular highway speeds, Chevrolet's Power-Jet carburetor maintains the proper fuel mixture for the engine. This, plus fast warm-up, smooth, quick response, means surprisingly low operating costs.

LONG LASTING BRAKES

The greater self-energization of Chevrolet hydraulic brakes provides smoother, safer braking — completely equalized pressure to each brake. This in turn assures full lining contact and longer wear — for the brakes on your truck.

BONDED BRAKE LININGS

No rivets! On light- and medium-duty models, the lining is bonded directly to brake shoes to increase life and to eliminate danger of scoring brake drums as lining wears. You get extra wear — safer brakes.

greater economy

engineered in!

... to do more work for your money

(Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.)

Just take a look at the engineered-in economy features of Chevrolet trucks. Features like valve-in-head engine design, Blue-Flame combustion, Power-Jet carburetor, long lasting brakes and a host of others. All the vast engineering and manufacturing experience of Canada's largest truck builder is used to give you greater economy on the job.

And Chevrolet economy goes far beyond low operating costs. It means engines, chassis and cabs will stand up under rough, tough use month after month, year after year. It means building extra ruggedness and extra efficiency into Chevrolet trucks at lowest cost.

Every day, more and more truck users are switching to new Chevrolet trucks. Take a tip from these truck-wise buyers and get engineered-in economy and more work for your money.

Police Name 268 Bookies At Coast

VANCOUVER, Nov. 2.—(BUP)—Names of 268 persons were released by city police in Vancouver's biggest bookie crackdown today as 31 men appeared in police court.

The 31 suspects were remanded by Magistrate W. W. McInnes until 2 p.m., Nov. 21.

The 268 persons named in the police drive to smash bookmaking in Vancouver, were not charged. But they are alleged to have conspired with 34 other persons in a big-time bookmaking ring in Vancouver.

Three of the "big names" are still being sought by police.

The crackdown and roundup was launched in the city Oct. 15 by a horde of police under direction of Det. Sgt. Archie Plummer.

A minor disturbance occurred outside the police station yesterday before the hearing when one of the 31 suspects kicked a camera held by a Sun photographer.

This hand from match play was a fine example of cue bidding in the face of a spirited barrage. South bid One Heart, West One Spade, North Three Clubs, and East Three Spades. South showed his power with Four Hearts, West bid Four Spades, and North countered with a cue bid of Five Spades.

South's reply was Six Clubs, and a further cue bid of Six Diamonds by North was an obvious grand slam try which South converted to Seven Hearts on the strength of his solid trumps. When East doggedly sacrificed in Seven Spades, South passed. North accepted this tacit invitation to bid Seven No-Trumps if he held A, and scored 2220 points as against his team-mates' loss of 500 at the other table in Seven Spades doubled.

EDMONTON RURAL HEALTH UNIT QUARTERLY REPORT STATES WASTE DISPOSAL GROUNDS ARE IMPROVED

The department of public works is removing dirt from the Leduc waste disposal grounds, and the result should provide a pit to take care of Leduc's refuse for many years. This was stated in the third and final quarterly report of the Edmonton Rural Health Unit. The report, issued by Dr. H. Siemens, medical officer of health, covered the period from July 1 to Sept. 30. The report stated a pit type waste disposal ground is also planned for Nisku and Beaumont.

Sixty-four people were X-rayed by the tuberculosis division and three new active cases were discovered.

The mobile unit, working from Lamont, has made arrangements to do mass X rays in four school districts in the north-east corner of the Clover Bar school division.

Twelve cases of whooping cough were reported. Of the eleven for whom records are available, nine had not been inoculated and two had been partially completed. The single case of scarlet fever had not received inoculations.

J. A. MacDougall visited 38 classrooms and gave 33 talks. There were 628 children interviewed privately.

Milk deliveries have again commenced in Morinville. A local farmer delivers his raw milk to an Edmonton plant and returns with bottled milk.

Complaints regarding "ropy milk" were received from the residents of Calmar. After an investigation it was found that poor housekeeping by a new man in the pasteurizing plant was responsible.

All the dairy cattle in this milk shed were tested for the possible presence of mastitis, and curative measures have been adopted for afflicted cows of the herd.

Owing to excessive rainfall the scavenging service in most towns was not regularly maintained. Most lanes displayed a larger number of garbage cans, but much work along this line is still to be done. Most restaurants were visited and improvements noted in some.

During the period, immunizing doses and immunity tests were given for various diseases. Scarlet fever ran the highest with 926 doses, followed closely by pertussis with 890 and diphtheria with 885 doses.

Included in the summary of the work done were examinations of persons of all ages by a doctor, nurses and the guidance clinic which totalled 703 and home visits amounting to 680. Cases of communicable diseases such as chicken pox, impetigo, measles and whooping cough—contacted, visited and quarantined, amounted to 313.

Inspections for sanitation, carried out in butcher shops, dairies, restaurants and such, totalled 236.

Rod Pantages Eager To Join Esks

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—(BUP)—Rod Pantages and Pete Thodos, the "Galoping Greeks" of Canadian football, will attempt to quit the Montreal Alouettes and join the Edmonton Eskimos of the Western Conference next year, it was learned yesterday.

Rated two of the best Canadian-born backs in the nation today, they were reported to be dissatisfied with the East. Pantages will head back to Edmonton as soon as the Als close out the season next Saturday against the Hamilton Tiger Cats. Thodos will return to his restaurant in Vancouver.

Both backs refused to confirm the report but indicated that they were negotiating with Alouette coach Lew Hayman for releases. They were said to be in favor of staying out of football for a whole year rather than return to Montreal under pressure.

The Lighter Side

School Boy Definition

Volcano: A high mountain that keeps interrupting.

Improving

"You must think I'm a perfect idiot."
"Well, perhaps not perfect; but you are doing quite well."

He Knows

Jiggs: "Many a man has a talent for conversation which he has had no opportunity of turning to account!"

Jinks: "Um-er-yes; I am married myself."

She Was Smart

"I suppose you asked every fifth man about his income?" inquired the first enumerator.

"Every fifth man?" countered the other enumerator, the ambitious type of single working girl. "No, I changed the rules slightly; I only asked the bachelors and widowers."

No Value

Employer: "Have you any references?"

Applicant: "No, sir, I tore them up."

Employer: "That was a foolish thing to do."

Applicant: "You wouldn't think so if you had read them."

Difficult Choice

Old Batch Stafford, the thrifty mountaineer, had long been dividing his attentions between skinny Elviry and buxom Matilda, the village spinsters. One day a tipsy town loafer said: "When are you going to make your mind up twixt them two gals, Batch?"

"Cain't say," replied the thrifty bachelor. "Matilda's bigger and stouter and can do more work. Still, on the other hand, it only takes three yards of calico to make Elviry a dress."

Letter to Louisa

Dear Louisa,

I have been going with two boys and I can't decide which I like the best.

One is of my same faith, and the other is not, so, of course, my parents like the first one best.

Do you think I should consider that when I make up my mind?

Sweet Sixteen

Answer:

I do not think that you are in love with either of these boys and you are too young to get married, anyway.

However, if you do feel that you have to make a choice, your chances for happiness are greater if you marry someone of your own faith.

There is more to marriage than

LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

My husband has been in Korea for the past six months and I have not received my allotment. I have one child and I am becoming desperate.

The baby is small and I have no one to leave it with and my money is about gone. I am sure that my husband signed for an allotment as he told me so before he left.

What can I do?

WORRIED WIFE.

Answer:

I assume that you have written to your husband and have contacted the army officer in charge of your area. The best thing you can do now is to go to the nearest Red Cross office and talk with the director.

He or she, as the case may be, will try to get in touch with your husband by wire to find out what the trouble is.

Very often the Red Cross office will make you a loan on your allotment if it is desired for any reason.

LOUISA.
